

RICK SANTORUM

Dear fellow conservative,

Please rush me your signed SANTORUM FOR PRESIDENT reply just as soon as you've finished reading my letter.

Conservatives from across the heartland of America are rallying to this fight.

This surge in support is how I've been able to score victories in Iowa, Missouri, Minnesota, Colorado, Tennessee, Oklahoma, North Dakota, Kansas, Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana.

That's 11 states so far – the most won by a challenger to the Republican “establishment” since Ronald Reagan.

I'm in striking distance of winning this nomination fight.

What's more, we're about to enter the most favorable terrain of this race for conservatives – with heartland states like Nebraska, North Carolina, Indiana, West Virginia, Kentucky, Arkansas, and Texas up for grabs.

I'm counting on your immediate help to take advantage of this opportunity.

There's still time for conservatives if we act now to win this primary to make sure our party doesn't nominate a Massachusetts Moderate to run against Obama.

It truly frightens me to think what'll happen if Mitt Romney is the nominee.

My friend, Republicans and conservatives will be crippled by a nominee who presents zero contrast with Barack Obama on the major issues of this election.

Any attempt by Mitt Romney to attack President Obama's positions on health-care, energy policy, social issues, or the economy will be easily neutralized.

You and I simply cannot afford to give away issues like Obama-care.

The 2012 election hinges on offering voters a clear contrast with the disastrous policies of Barack Obama – not a mirror image of them!

That's why I'm writing you today.

Won't you rush me your SANTORUM FOR PRESIDENT reply today to help nominate an authentic conservative – rather than a moderate from Massachusetts – to challenge and defeat Barack Obama?

As Mitt Romney grows more and more desperate, he's going to order his campaign to spend more and more money on attack ads to distort the truth.

So I'm asking you to consider making a donation of $35 to my campaign today.

Over 150,000 individuals have donated to my campaign so far – giving me the “strength in numbers” that Barack Obama has and that Mitt Romney can only dream about. My plan to restore prosperity and bring jobs back to America is really resonating.

That's why I'm the best positioned candidate in this race to defeat Barack Obama.

Now is the time to make our stand.

If you do nothing – or if you put off answering my letter by even a few days – it'll be too late.

So please grab a pen and sign your check for $35, $50, $75, $125, $500, or even $1,000 today. Any amount you can afford – whether it's $35 or $1,000 - would be greatly appreciated. Time is the most crucial factor.

This is the most important election of our lifetimes - so don't sit on the sidelines.

With your help today, I can win this nomination to go on and beat Barack Obama in November. Together, we can restore freedom and prosperity in America.

Join me. Join the fight!

Rick Santorum

P.S. Mitt Romney has spent over $60 million already, but still can't win over the heartland voters needed to win this race. That should set off major alarm bells for conservatives. With your help I can build a conservative coalition capable of defeating Barack Obama. So please rush me your SANTORUM FOR PRESIDENT reply and your best gift of $35, $50, $75, $125, $500, or even $1,000 right away. Thank you!
